

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Issued by the Department of Transportation on November 16, 2000

NOTICE OF ACTION TAKEN DISMISSING APPLICATIONS—VARIOUS DOCKETS

This serves as notice to the public of the actions described below, taken on the date shown above by the Department official indicated (no additional confirming order will be issued in these matters).

The carriers listed below have applied for various forms of authority or relief under Title 49 of the United States Code in order to perform the air transportation activities described. Each application has either been withdrawn by the applicant or otherwise become moot. Therefore, we find that these applications should be dismissed, under authority assigned by the Department in its Regulations, 14 CFR § 385.3 and 385.13.

Docket

Description of Application

Undocketed

Continental Airlines, Inc. and Air Aruba, filed February 12, 1999. Joint application seeking statements of authorization under 14 CFR Part 212 to permit Continental to display Air Aruba's designator code on flights in specified markets; and permitting Air Aruba to display Continental's designator code on Air Aruba flights between Aruba, on the one hand, and Miami, Newark, Tampa and Caracas, Venezuela, on the other hand. On May 11, 1999, we granted the joint requests of Continental and Air Aruba to the extent it involved code-share services in the U.S.-Aruba-Canada market (as set forth in the application) and deferred action on that portion of the joint request involving services in the Aruba-Caracas, Venezuela city pair market. On November 13, 2000, Continental and Air Aruba filed a joint motion withdrawing the deferred portion of their joint request (to place Continental's code on Air Aruba flights between Aruba and Caracas).

Exemption and statement of authorization to the extent necessary to permit Eurofly, a foreign airline of Italy, to operate one one-way passenger charter flight from Miami, Florida, to Paris, France and Milan, Italy. By letter dated November 15, 2000, Eurofly withdrew its request in Docket OST-2000-8293.

DISPOSITION

Action: We dismiss the applications described above.

Action taken by: Paul L. Gretch, Director
Office of International Aviation

Persons entitled to petition the Department for review of the action set forth in this Notice under the Department's regulations, 14 CFR § 385.30, may file their petitions within ten (10) days after the date of issuance of this Notice. The actions set forth in this Notice shall be effective and become the actions of the Department of Transportation upon expiration of the above period unless within such period a petition for Department review is filed or the Department gives notice that it will review one or more actions on its own motion. The filing of a petition for review with respect to one of the dismissed items will not alter the effectiveness of this Notice with respect to the others.
